

NSSSED and its Association of Parents & Staff through the Parent Mentor Program presents:

The Impact of Childhood Disability: The Parents' Struggle

Presented by Ken Moses, Ph.D.

Saturday, March 17, 2012

9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. Box lunch will be provided.

NSSSED Technology Center
776 Red Oak Lane, Highland Park

Dr. Moses is a psychologist who helps people deal with crisis, trauma and loss. He is a nationally renowned speaker, author and clinician who has devoted much of his work to parents of children and adults with disabilities. He works to help people sort out their lives after experiencing loss similar to those he has experienced himself. Currently, he maintains a private practice in Evanston and conducts workshops, group retreats and seminars and materials dealing with the issue of human growth in the shadow of loss. Please come and experience what is sure to be a profoundly moving and educational session with Dr. Moses.

Advance Registration is Required

Registration fee for the program is $20 and the registration deadline is March 1st. To register please complete the attached form and mail it to: NSSSED, Attn: Mary Ades, 760 Red Oak Lane, Highland Park IL 60035. Make checks payable to NSSSED. For additional information, please contact Susan Hans, NSSSED/APS Parent Mentor at (847) 831-5100, x2228.

Directions: After turning onto Red Oak Lane turn right at the first driveway. Turn right again, following the signs to Safari Childcare. The NSSSED Technology Center is in the Safari Childcare building and a statue of a cow is in front of the building.